Short Bio

Didier Verna is a French Jazz guitarist, singer and composer, alternating his musical career with that of a professor of Computer Science. Involved in music since the age of 5, he has studied music theory, percussion, piano and finally guitar.

As a singer, he was part of the Voice Messengers, a vocal Jazz Big Band led by Thierry Lalo. As a guitarist and composer, he has founded and leads the @-quartet (Laurent Epstein; formerly Guillaume Naud / piano, Yoni Zelnik; formerly Gilles Naturel / upright bass and David Georgelet / drums), a band with which he has released three albums (“@-quartet”, “Roots and Leaves”, and “¡En Seguida!”).

Today, Didier Verna also acts as an occasional presenter for the Opus Jazzis radio show on IDFM 98.0 (Radio Enghien).

Didier Verna has also played and / or recorded with important personalities of Contemporary Jazz, such as Antoine Hervé, Glenn Ferris, François Laudet, Andréa Michelutti, Yves Carbonne (Carbonne / diPiazza / Manring), Denis Gouzil (Cie Lubat), Déborah Tanguy, Sonia Cat-Berro ...
